Section 1: Introduction

1.1 About this guidance

This guidance is produced by the Standards and Testing Agency (STA) and details the statutory requirements for the early years foundation stage (EYFS) profile assessment and reporting for the 2017 to 2018 academic year.

1.2 Who is this guidance for?

The ARA applies to all early years providers, including all providers registered with a childminder agency, all providers on the early years register, maintained schools (including maintained special schools), academies (including free schools), Service Children’s Education (SCE) schools, non-maintained schools and independent schools with early years provision, unless they have an exemption from the learning and development requirements of the EYFS for children 3 and over.

1.3 Legal status of the ARA

The EYFS statutory framework sets the standards for learning, development and welfare for children from birth to 31 August following a child’s fifth birthday. The ARA provides further guidance on the assessment and reporting of the EYFS profile, which is set out in the framework.

Section 40(2)(a) of the Childcare Act 2006 stipulates that early years providers must ensure that their provision meets the learning and development requirements as specified in the EYFS (Learning and Development Requirements) Order 2007 (S.I. 2007/1772). The Act states that this Order can specify the arrangements which are required for assessing children for the purpose of ascertaining what they have achieved in relation to the early learning goals (ELGs).

All English local authorities (LAs) must have regard to guidance given by the Secretary of State for Education in exercising their function under the EYFS (Learning and Development Requirements) Order 2007 (article 4(2)). The Order is made in exercise of the Secretary of State’s powers under sections 39(1)(a), 42 and 44 of the Childcare Act 2006. Failure to have regard to this guidance will breach this statutory requirement.

1.4 Expiry

This guidance is relevant until the end of the 2017 to 2018 academic year.

Section 2: Early years foundation stage profile

2.1 Overview of the profile

The Department for Education (DfE) has confirmed that the EYFS profile remains statutory.

The 2018 EYFS profile handbook will be published in the autumn term. The handbook contains detailed information about the background and purpose of the profile. It also explains how practitioners should complete the profile. Headteachers and other managers of early years provision should make sure those involved in assessing the EYFS have a thorough understanding of the handbook.

Schools and other providers must complete the EYFS profile for their children, as defined in section 2.2, by Friday 29 June and report the results to their LA.

2.2 Completing the profile

Practitioners must complete the EYFS profile for each child who will be 5 years old on, or before, 31 August 2018 unless:

- The Secretary of State for Education has granted an exemption from the profile for the provision.
- The child is continuing in EYFS provision beyond the year in which they turn 5.
- The child has attended the provision for an insufficient amount of time for the teacher to make an adequate assessment before the profile submission deadline and so an accurate and valid assessment can’t be completed. It is for the practitioner to use their professional judgement to decide, on a case by case basis, whether an accurate assessment can be made in the time available.

Practitioners should make profile judgements on the basis of cumulative observational evidence recorded over the course of the year. Profile summaries must be completed no later than Friday 29 June.

2.3 Data collection and submission

EYFS providers may use any secure system to collect and submit profile data, as long as practitioners can record completed profile data for every child at the end of the EYFS. Providers should agree a preferred system with their geographical LA. Maintained schools should contact their LA for support. Support is available for non-maintained schools from DfE by contacting the data collections helpdesk.

National data submission

As detailed in the Childcare (Provision of Information About Young Children) (England) Regulations 2009\(^5\), all registered early years providers, and all schools that are exempt from registration, must provide EYFS profile data to their LA upon request, unless the Secretary of State for Education has granted an exemption from the EYFS learning and development requirements (see section 2.5).

LAs are under a duty to return the requested EYFS profile data to DfE.

The following table sets out the requirements for submission of EYFS profile data and contextual child data to LAs and DfE:

2.5 Exemptions

Exemptions from the assessment arrangements

All EYFS providers must participate in the assessment arrangements outlined in this ARA, unless the Secretary of State for Education has granted an exemption from the learning and development requirements of the EYFS for children aged 3 and over. If an exemption is granted for an individual child, then this should be recorded as ‘A’ for each ELG in their profile return.

Inclusive assessment

The EYFS profile is an inclusive assessment. It can capture a wide range of children’s learning and development outcomes. Despite this, practitioners might find the observation and assessment of some children particularly challenging.

If a child is given an outcome of ‘emerging’, it might not provide the full picture about that child’s learning and development at the end of the EYFS. In these cases, extra information should be included alongside EYFS profile judgements. This will ensure that conversations with key stage 1 (KS1) staff are meaningful and help the child to make a successful transition.

There may be cases where it is not appropriate to make a judgement against an assessment scale, for instance if the child has recently arrived from abroad. In these cases, practitioners must use ‘A’ (no assessment) when they submit the data to their LA.

Children who remain in EYFS provision beyond the age of 5

The expectation is that children will move with their peers so they will only be assessed once for the EYFS profile. In exceptional circumstances, after discussion and in agreement with parents, a child might remain in EYFS provision beyond the end of the academic year in which they reach the age of 5. Providers should take care to make sure this decision does not prejudice the child’s personal, social and emotional development.

In these exceptional cases, assessment should continue throughout the child’s time within EYFS provision. An EYFS profile should be completed once only, at the end of the year before the child moves into KS1. The provider should discuss their intention to defer the child’s statutory assessment with their LA EYFS profile moderation manager. This will ensure the child’s data is not considered missing when the provider submits EYFS profile outcomes for the current cohort.

Care should be taken when entering the child’s EYFS profile assessment into any electronic recording system. The child’s date of birth may now be outside the expected range for the cohort. LAs should give providers instructions in such cases. DfE will consider the child to be part of this new cohort, and will accept data submitted in this way if the LA has provided the information to DfE. DfE may check the accuracy of the dates of birth of individual children with the relevant LA.
Section 3: Moderation

3.1 Internal moderation

The moderation of EYFS profile assessment begins within each individual provider. Within their own provision, practitioners can agree assessment judgements with others informally. This might involve 2 practitioners, for example a teacher and teaching assistant, or a reception class teacher and year 1 teacher, or a teacher and headteacher, discussing evidence about a child’s development. The moderation of the EYFS profile is supported by LAs, or LA approved agencies, through a programme of visits and meetings.

3.2 Local authority responsibilities

LAs have a statutory duty to ensure the accuracy and consistency of the assessments made by early years providers in their area. They must set up and carry out moderation arrangements to:

- ensure the consistency and accuracy of judgements made by different practitioners
- reassure practitioners that their judgements are accurate, valid and consistent with national standards
- assure moderators that an acceptable level of accuracy and validity has been achieved for assessments recorded and reported by the providers for which they have responsibility

Moderation of the EYFS profile is a sampling process and not a method for checking each child’s attainment. LA moderation visits use discussion to check that teachers are making accurate assessments and applying them consistently. Evidence discussed includes:

- materials
- knowledge of the child
- anecdotal incidents
- results of observations
- information from additional sources that supports the overall picture of the child’s development

Evidence doesn’t have to be formally recorded or documented. The extent to which the practitioner chooses to record information will depend on individual preference. Paperwork should be kept to the minimum that practitioners need to illustrate, support and recall their knowledge of the child’s attainment. The outcome of moderation should be recorded.

The 2018 EYFS profile handbook\(^7\) includes guidance and examples of effective moderation practice for LAs. LAs must ensure that all providers are visited at least once every 4 years as part of a cycle of moderation visits. Providers must be notified of whether the EYFS profile assessment is being carried out in accordance with requirements.

25% of providers within an LA must receive a moderation visit each year. By the end of the spring term LAs must inform the providers selected to receive a visit. For moderation purposes, these providers will need to complete interim judgements against all ELGs at the beginning of May for children in the final year of the EYFS. All 17 ELGs must be scrutinised during the visit.

The Childcare Providers (Information, Advice and Training) Regulations\(^8\) require LAs to secure the provision of information, advice and training, for childcare providers, prospective providers and childcare employees, in accordance with section 13 of the Childcare Act 2006. LAs must offer training in EYFS assessment and the completion of the EYFS profile summaries to all providers who need it.

LAs must ensure that EYFS profile assessment judgements are moderated. This means appointing and training moderators with appropriate experience of the EYFS and the ELGs to secure consistent standards in assessment judgements.

The LA moderator may judge that the assessment is not in line with the exemplified standards. If so, the LA can require the provider to:

- arrange for the practitioner to undertake further training or moderation activities
- reconsider their assessments as advised by the moderator

All English LAs must have regard to this guidance by virtue of article 4(2) of the EYFS (Learning and Development Requirements) Order 2007\(^9\). If a LA chooses to use a moderation model which doesn’t rely on moderation visits, they must ensure they can show that all the statutory elements of the moderation visit are protected.

3.3 Headteachers’, governing bodies’, multi-academy trusts’ and managers’ responsibilities

Headteachers, governing bodies, multi-academy trusts (MATs) and managers of early years providers are responsible for the reliability of their EYFS profile outcomes. They must use quality assurance processes to ensure that the data accurately reflects the attainment of the current cohort of children.

They should arrange for practitioners who are involved in completing EYFS profiles to take part in LA moderation activities.

If they receive a LA moderation visit they must meet reasonable requests from the LA moderator:

- to enter the premises to carry out the visit
- to amend assessments
- for practitioners to take part in further training or moderation activities

In addition, they must:

- allow their LA to examine and take copies of documents and other articles relating to the EYFS profile and assessments
- provide their LA with such information relating to the EYFS profile and assessment as it may reasonably request

They are also responsible for ensuring that any of their practitioners who are involved in making assessments have the opportunity to become familiar with effective practice of completing the EYFS profile. This may involve:

- attendance at training courses
- visits by moderators to providers
- moderation meetings within providers (in-house moderation)
- moderation meetings with practitioners from other providers
Section 4: Reporting and using results

4.1 Reporting to parents

Schools and other providers required to complete the EYFS profile must share the results with parents, and offer them the opportunity to discuss the report with the teacher or practitioner who completed it. For children attending more than one provider, the profile must be completed by the provider where the child spends most time.

Parents should be involved in the assessment process on a regular, ongoing basis. They should be encouraged to take part in their child’s learning and development.

All EYFS providers must give parents a written summary of their child’s attainment against the ELGs. For each ELG this must state whether the child is:

- not yet reaching expected levels (‘emerging’)
- meeting ‘expected’ levels
- ‘exceeding’ expected levels

At the end of reception year, providers should give parents a written report which:

- states the child’s attainment against the ELGs
- summarises attainment in all areas of learning
- comments on general progress including the characteristics of effective learning
- explains arrangements for discussing the profile

Reports should:

- be specific to the child
- be concise and informative
- help to identify appropriate next steps

Practitioners may use the information provided by EYFS profile assessment as a basis for their reports to parents. Providers must offer parents a reasonable opportunity to discuss the outcomes of the profile with their child’s practitioner. This meeting should be within the term in which the profile has been completed. Practitioners may wish to consider making the child’s profile available to parents as part of this discussion. If parents do ask to see a copy of their child’s profile, the provider must make this available.
4.2 Transferring records to a child’s new school or provider

If a child moves to a new school or provider during the academic year, the original school must send their assessment of the child’s development against the ELGs to the new school or provider.

If a child transfers schools or providers before the summer half term holiday, the new school or provider must report the child’s EYFS profile data to the LA. If a child transfers schools during the second half of the summer term, the previous school must report the profile data to the LA.

Governing body responsibilities

The governing body must arrange to have the following information sent to the child’s new school:

- the child’s educational record
- the defined items of data that comprise the common transfer file\(^{10}\) (CTF)

This task is often delegated to headteachers by governing bodies. The information must be sent within 15 school days of the child ceasing to be registered at the old school, unless the new school is not known. In this case it should be sent within 15 school days of receiving a request from the child’s new school.

If the new school is unknown, DfE recommends that the school should still complete the CTF and load it onto the school to school\(^{11}\) (S2S) secure transfer system. If schools don’t receive a CTF for a new child, they can ask their LA to search for the file on S2S.

Where both the old and the new school have the necessary facilities, the CTF must be sent to the new school either:

- through S2S
- over a secure network that can only be accessed by the LA, the governing body, MAT or a teacher at any school within that LA

The basic requirement is that the old school will send the educational records and CTF to the new school by one of these methods. If either school doesn’t have the facilities to send or receive information in this format, the LA may provide the file where there are agreed and secure local arrangements to that effect.

4.3 How EYFS profile assessment results are used

Year 1 teachers must be given a copy of the EYFS profile report together with a short commentary on each child’s skills and abilities in relation to the 3 key characteristics of effective learning, included in the EYFS statutory framework\(^\text{12}\) (paragraph 1.9). These should inform a dialogue between reception and year 1 teachers about each child’s stage of development and learning needs, and assist with the planning of activities in year 1.

EYFS profile assessment data can be a source of information about levels of development within a school or provider. For example:

- levels of learning and development in each of the areas of learning for individual children, classes and year groups
- the attainment of children born in different months of the year
- the attainment of different groups of children, for example boys and girls

Schools may also wish to conduct further analysis using wider contextual information. DfE will publish national and LA data\(^\text{13}\) so that they can compare their children’s attainment on a regional and national basis.

There are no performance tables for the EYFS.

The government has committed to publishing policy input and impact indicators. These are set out in departmental business plans. One of DfE’s impact indicators is the proportion of children achieving a good level of development in the EYFS by free school meal eligibility. DfE will use statistical measures to show progress against this indicator.

Section 5: Legal requirements and responsibilities

5.1 How the ARA applies to different EYFS providers

The ARA applies to all EYFS reception classes, and any provider caring for children who will be 5 years old on, or before, 31 August 2018, including any out-of-home provider of early years provision for children from birth to 5, for example:

- all providers registered with a childminder agency
- all providers on the early years register (for example, nurseries and childminders)
- maintained schools, non-maintained schools, academies and independent schools with early years provision

Academies and free schools in England

Academies must implement the requirements of the EYFS (by virtue of section 40 of the Childcare Act 2006). All references to academies in the guidance include free schools as, in law, they are academies.

Unlike other key stages, the assessment of the EYFS profile must be moderated by the academy’s geographical LA. An academy must comply with the geographical LA’s moderation requirements.

All registered early years providers are required to complete the EYFS profile assessment for any children in the final year of the EYFS and to participate in moderation. This includes an academy providing for children in the final year of the EYFS.

Funding for EYFS profile moderation activities for all schools rests within LA budgets.

Service Children’s Education schools

SCE schools are required to participate in the assessment and reporting arrangements for the EYFS profile in line with the administration in England.

Overseas schools

Overseas schools, which are not SCE schools, cannot participate in the EYFS profile assessment and reporting arrangements.

Hospital schools

Children attending a hospital school are not subject to the assessment requirements in this ARA.
Home-educated children

The assessment and reporting arrangements do not apply to children who are being educated at home, unless they are on the register of a maintained school or independent school.

Independent schools and EYFS providers registered with Ofsted

All independent schools and registered EYFS providers must comply with the information in the ARA unless they have an exemption from the EYFS learning and development requirements for children 3 and over. This includes participating in moderation arrangements for the EYFS profile and submission of data to the LA (this data collection is governed by section 99 of the Childcare Act 2006), as specified in the national data submission table in section 2.3 of this guidance.

Providers with children not in receipt of government funding

Under regulations made under section 99 of the Childcare Act 2006, LAs are allowed to collect specified data for children not in receipt of government funding in the summer term. EYFS providers are required to comply with LA requests for this data. LAs are not required to submit data to DfE.

The LA can request data including:

- the learning and development category for each ELG
- the child’s date of birth
- the home address where the child normally resides
- the child’s ethnic group
- the child’s gender
- whether the child has a special educational need
- if the child has English as an additional language

5.2 Responsibilities

All those responsible for assessing and reporting of the EYFS need to refer to this ARA. The ARA provides guidance on the responsibilities of those involved in assessment and reporting for the EYFS. Assessments must be completed for all children in the final year of

of the EYFS who will be 5 years old on or before 31 August 2018, although some exemptions apply (see section 2.5).

The EYFS profile must be completed no later than Friday 29 June. This date applies to all EYFS providers, including:

- all providers registered with a childminder agency
- all providers on the early years register (for example, nurseries and childminders)
- maintained schools, non-maintained schools, academies and independent schools with early years provision

The profile must be completed by the provider at the provision where the child spends the majority of their time between 8am and 6pm.

Headteachers and managers of EYFS provision

All headteachers and managers of EYFS provision have a duty to implement the EYFS. Headteachers and managers must ensure their school or provision complies with the learning and development requirements of the EYFS. This includes completing the EYFS profile and engaging with LA moderation activities.

Headteachers and managers of EYFS provision must:

- ensure an EYFS profile is completed for all eligible children and data is quality assured
- ensure provision is made to meet the requirements of all children with special educational needs
- take responsibility for the reliability of their EYFS profile outcomes and ensure that the data accurately reflects the level of attainment of the current cohort of children
- ensure teacher judgements are monitored
- ensure EYFS profile data is returned to their LA in accordance with the table in section 2.3
- provide EYFS profile assessments to their school’s governing body to enable it to comply with national data submission requirements and report to parents
- ensure the statutory requirements for the transfer of records between providers are fulfilled, including the completion of the CTF

Headteachers must also provide parents with a written report of the child’s progress against the ELGs and the opportunity to discuss the EYFS profile. If a parent requests it, headteachers must provide a copy of the EYFS profile report on their child’s progress, free of charge.
Local authorities

LAs must ensure that EYFS providers understand and follow the requirements set out in the ARA by providing:

- advice on all aspects of assessment at EYFS
- training, including on ‘agreement trialling’

‘Agreement trialling’ is the process of discussing assessment judgements in a group so that all practitioners understand the national exemplification of standards and apply them consistently.

LAs must ensure that assessments made by early years providers in their geographical area are accurate and consistent. LAs must do this by ensuring moderation of the EYFS profile is carried out in all schools (including academies) and other providers.

In terms of data, LAs must:

- ensure schools have a secure electronic system to submit EYFS profile data
- ensure all other EYFS providers have an appropriate means for accurately recording profile results, and submitting data to their LA if requested (see section 2)
- collect EYFS profile data, and quality assure and submit it to DfE in the required format

LAs must also inform STA of any irregularities in providers’ assessment arrangements by contacting the national curriculum assessments helpline on 0300 303 3013.
