Early Years Provider Satisfaction Survey 2016

This consultation gives all providers an opportunity to comment on the quality of the services they receive from Northamptonshire County Council, and also serves as the annual customer satisfaction survey for providers in this area. The county council will also be consulting specifically on the impact of the work generated by Trajectory Funding.

The full results of this consultation will be published in the Early Years Bulletin on 14th July 2016, which is distributed to all providers. Part of the results will also be used to inform the Trajectory Funding Impact Report for the Schools' Forum. This will be published on 5th July.
