PLANNING OUT CRIME IN NORTHAMPTONSHIRE CHECKLIST:

Northamptonshire County Council and the District and Borough Councils of Corby, Daventry, East Northamptonshire, Kettering, Northampton, South Northamptonshire and Wellingborough are committed to a programme of joint working to enhance community safety through the planning system, in partnership with Northamptonshire Police. These authorities have adopted Supplementary Planning Guidance (SPG) on Planning Out Crime in Northamptonshire (see overleaf for details). The SPG is a material consideration in the determination of planning applications.

This Checklist seeks to ensure that the SPG is implemented and requires applicants to consider the impact of crime and disorder on their proposals and to demonstrate that appropriate measures have been considered in accordance with the advice provided in the SPG.

This Checklist should be completed and returned if your proposal meets the criteria set out on the reverse side of this form. Please return the Checklist to the Local Planning Authority along with your completed planning application form (and any other enclosures or supporting information as necessary). Please use additional sheets for your response if required.
